Dear Dawn,

A Buddy!  How's it goin'?
High 5!  mic mic Well my clownin letter probably still has you crackin up! I couldnt resist some of the character's in my mad magazine. Had to bring em out in a letter to ya. A trip ~~to~~! I cant helpit, I love to goof off at times.

Say Dawn, I have a serious request to ask you. It may be a little tough on ya, if your workin alot. But please see if you can find time to do this. We'll be workin together on it. As we read it together. We could communicate if you wish to back and fourth on it. And all and all,, Get our spirits all pumped up in God. My request is this. Would you begin to read the book of John. Starts on page 93 of the N.T. But when you read it, the gig is this, you must like I am.  Pleaseee, that is.  ^{see key} read ~~it~~ also the cross references. Every time you see a letter of, next to a word. Look it up on the side column, its basic meaning. It is easier if you read like, 4 or 5 verses, then go back to any letters that are beside the words and, re-evaluate the basic meanings on, at Dawn, if you'll do this, I'll be forever gratefull. For then, I'll know, your gettin' one of the most "closest" developments towards christ, God, and the heavenslies, you've probably ever experienced in life. A fresh begining, and real personal feeling with him. Like friends that we are. A real close relationship going.

So will you? When you start. I'll start too. I've already read it, but see, I'll do it again. So we can talk about it in letters. OK. It would be a blessed spiritual awakening for you. For it has with me. Out of all the books, John hits it on the head of the nail. Who he is, what he's all about, and why. I'll give you one of the most, clearest introductorys too christ. You'll really enjoy it.

Please do it slow to. Let the word's sink in. "Take your time." Be relaxed and feelin' mellow as you do. It doesn't matter how long it'll take you. Seeing you are quite busy. It could take you a few weeks, a month. But heck! so what. Where not racin'. So please, just do it slow and easy. The spirit of the Lord will soon begin to indwell in you, more so, then you've ever "experienced"....

You'll be a new person Dawn, if ya do. Eat veggies, get all pumped up, and energized, and then slowly, in your intusinziasm, just mellow right in. If you will, do this, please just start it up, and move in. I'll catch up, when ever your at, when ya let me know. OK. I can catch up easier, since of-course, I've nothing but hand over fist in time. Time Time Time. A Time, its so stress-full. ha ha ha! Yeah! Wish I could find a job, but no no will die ...! = Dawn +
